Success of our community is dependent on your participation and we request you to help promote the Bengali Association of Pittsburgh. If you know friends who are not aware of our association yet, please encourage them to join us. If you have friends or families visiting during one of our events we encourage you bring them and be a part of our culture.

We will celebrate 150th birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, in Rabindra Jayanti at William Pitt Union Auditorium on Saturday May 14th at 4:30 PM. We look forward to seeing you there and if you or your child is interested in participating, please contact Kaushik Mitra at (412)264-5036 or Nidrita Mitra-Sinha at (724)265-7957 as soon as possible as the organization of the program is underway. In this event, we plan to recognize notable accomplishments and achievements (e.g., winning a national/international award, high school, college or PhD graduation) of our community members. Please contact Partha Basu at (412)571-0749 or email your stories at allurchop@gmail.com.

We encourage you to become prepaid members this year; the annual membership as well as requested donation for individual events is listed. You can send your payment by mailing a check payable to Bengali Association of Pittsburgh at 131 Mayberry Dr, Monroeville, PA 15146, Phone: (412)856-9635.
